Rethink Church

Sunday, July 21, 2019

St. Cecilia Parish Hall
Glen Carbon, IL

We've been coming to Church for years... yet, something seems to be missing.

The church of the apostles was powerful and dynamic.

- We hear this in the scripture readings at Mass and maybe in our own reading.
- We find that people who were nothing like Christ really liked Christ.
- We find disciples who gave everything, including their lives, to be called a "Christian".

Yet today, what do we find?

- We stop going to Mass because the parking is inconvenient.
- We skip out if our team is playing, our kids have an event, or yesterday's party went late.
- My comfort, my control, my convenience.

And yet...

- Many of us, deep down, are tired of living for small things, vain pursuits, empty pleasures.
- We aren't happy even though we feel in our bones that we should be.
- Comfort leaves us uncomfortable.
- Our needs are met. Our wants are met. And yet...

Stop and rethink...

You are invited to rethink what Church means,
to come and see how to be a member of the Body of Christ.

Jesus Christ has enough fans. He desires us to be followers.

Childcare available.

Please call or email to reserve childcare.
